

are satisfied with their franchisor and the opportunity provided would "do it again" knowing what they know today.

Enjoy being part of their organization would recommend their franchise brand to others enjoy operating their business

Believe their franchisor acts with a high level of integrity

Respect their franchisor

* Independent franchisee satisfaction data indicates whether or not a franchise brand is meeting or exceeding owners' expectations. The percentages represent the aggregate of positive responses from franchisees.